Koukaryoku DOK Service Terms and Conditions

Article 1 (Application of Terms and Conditions)

1. These Koukaryoku DOK Service Terms and Conditions (these "Terms and Conditions") are the Basic Terms and Conditions applicable to the Basic Service, "Koukaryoku DOK Service" (the "Service") which SAKURA internet Inc. (the "Company") provides.
2. A user of the Services (the "User") shall comply with the Basic Terms and Conditions and these Terms and Conditions that the Company sets forth. The Basic Terms and Conditions together with these Terms and Conditions shall apply to the Services.

Article 2 (Service Contents)

1. The Service is a service which enables working applications to run in an OS environment (the "Container") isolated from other applications.
2. The Company shall set an upper limit (the "Continuous Running Time Upper Limit") for the period from the start to the termination of running of the Container. The Continuous Running Time Upper Limit and other specifications of the Service shall be set forth on the Service Site.

Article 3 (Application)

1. In addition to the provisions of conclusion of the Use Contract in the Basic Terms and Conditions, if the Company determines that the Applicant falls under any of the following items, the Company may refuse to accept the application. If the Company refuses to accept the application, the Company shall promptly notify the Applicant to that effect but have no obligation to disclose the reason for the refusal.

(1) if the Applicant is listed in the End User List which the Economy, Trade and Industry Ministry sets forth, the Denied Persons List or the Entity List which Bureau of Industry and Security sets forth or other lists equivalent to them, if the Applicant is a company, a citizen or a resident of an embargoed country or a trade sanctioned country, or, besides, if provision of the Services to the Applicant by the Company falls under, or may fall under, violation of the "Foreign Exchange and Foreign Trade Act" and laws and regulations relating to export and import including the US Export Administration Regulations.

Article 4 (Use Start Date)

1. The Company shall start providing the Service from the day on which the Use Contract is validly concluded.

Article 5 (Usage Fees)

1. The Usage Fees for the Service shall accrue in seconds (rounded up to the nearest second) according to the time (the "Running Time") from the start to the termination of running of the Container.
2. In providing the Service, the Company may set forth lower limit of the Running Time (the "Minimum Use Time"). Among the Service, in the plan for which the Company has set forth the Minimum Use Time, if the Running Time is less than the Minimum Use Time, the Usage Fees will be calculated deeming that the Minimum Use Time is the Running Time.
3. If the Usage Fees include a fraction less than one (1) yen, the fraction will be rounded up.

Article 6 (Payment of Usage Fees)

1. Notwithstanding the provisions on payment deadline in the Basic Terms and Conditions, the User shall pay the Usage Fees for its use of the Service for the period from the 1st day to the last day of every month by the 10th day of the following month; provided, however, that if the User does not terminate running of the Container which was started during the period from the 1st day to the last day of every month within the current month but terminates it in the following month, then the Usage Fees for the period shall be charged in a lump sum as the Usage Fees for the following month, and the User shall pay the Usage Fees for the following month including the Usage Fees for the period by the 10th day of the month two (2) months following the month.

2. The payment method of the Usage Fees for the Service shall be payment by credit card only unless the Company individually approves another method; provided, however, that if the Usage Fees for the Service exceed the amount that the Company prescribes, the Company may request the User to pay the Usage Fees by another payment method.
3. The Company shall obtain a credit line of the credit card that the User uses in proportion to the usage by the User. If the Company is unable to obtain the credit line, the User shall consent to the fact that the User may not newly start running of the Container and the Container that is running may be stopped.

Article 7 (Minimum Use Period)

1. Notwithstanding the provisions on the minimum use period in the Basic Terms and Conditions, there is no minimum use period for the Service.

Article 8 (Termination of Use Contract)

1. Notwithstanding the provisions of termination date in the Basic Terms and Conditions, the User may, by giving a notice to the Company in a manner that the Company prescribes, terminate the Use Contract as of the day on which the User gives the notice.

Article 9 (Handling of Physical Server)

1. The User may not enter the location where a physical server in which a virtual server running the Container of the Service is set is placed.

Article 10 (Prohibited Matters)

1. In addition to the provisions of the prohibited matters in the Basic Terms and Conditions, the User shall not conduct an act which falls under, or may fall under, any of the following items:
   (1) an act to cause a third party to use the Services without the Company's prior consent;
   (2) an act to cause a third party listed in the End User List which the Economy, Trade and Industry Ministry sets forth, the Denied Persons List or the Entity List which Bureau of Industry and Security sets forth or other lists equivalent to them, or a company, a citizen or a resident of an embargoed country or a trade sanctioned country, to use the Services, or an act to use the Services in a manner to violate the "Foreign Exchange and Foreign Trade Act" and laws and regulations concerning export and import including the US Export Administration Regulations;
   (3) an act to use the Services for the purposes of or in a manner of deceiving, confusing or manipulating their mind of others such as spreading false information, misinformation or biased information;
   (4) an act to use the Services for the purposes of or in a manner of encouraging or facilitating a crime;
   (5) an act to use the Services for the purposes or in a manner to discriminate and harass others based on race, ethnicity, religion, nationality, origin, gender, gender identity, sexual orientation, age, existence or non-existence of disability, disease or the like, or to infringe the human rights of others; or
   (6) an act to use the Services for the purposes of developing, manufacturing, using devices of mass destruction or conventional weapon and the like, or other military purposes (excluding those concerning Japanese defense purposes).

Article 11 (Loss of Data)

1. In the Service, the User may not save the data, and due to the specification, the data temporarily recorded in the Container during the period from the start to the termination of running of the Container will be lost in the case of the following items. The User consents to this and shall make necessary backups by itself.

(1) when the User terminates the Container and the like;
(2) when the Container is forced to restart or be terminated and the like; and
(3) when the Continuous Running Time Upper Limit is exceeded.

2. The Company shall not assume any liabilities for compensation for damage or any other liabilities with respect to the damage that the User has incurred due to loss or damage of data pertaining to the Service, and if the data is lost or damaged, the Company shall assume no obligation of restoring the data.

Article 12 (Beta Functions)

1. The Company may provide functions under development as functions of the Service (functions under development provided on a trial basis are collectively referred to as the "Beta Functions").
2. With respect to the Beta Functions, the Company shall not give, whether expressed or implied, any warranty. The Company shall not assume any liabilities for compensation for damage or any other liabilities with respect to the damage that the User has incurred due to its use of the Beta Functions, and if the data temporarily recorded in the Container is lost or damaged due to the use of the Beta Functions, the Company shall assume no obligation of restoring the data.
3. The Company may at its discretion arbitrarily change the content of the Beta Functions. The Company will make efforts to notify the change to the User without delay, but the Company shall not assume any liabilities for the damage that the User has incurred due to the change and delay of the notice.
4. The Company shall not warrant future formal servitization of the Beta Functions, and the Company may at its discretion arbitrarily discontinue the Beta Functions without formally servitizing them. The Company will make efforts to notify the discontinuation to the User without delay but shall not assume any liabilities for the damage that the User has incurred due to the discontinuation and delay of the notice. In addition, in the case of formally servitizing the Beta Functions, the Company shall not warrant that the contents of the functions formally servitized are the same as the Beta Functions and shall not assume any liabilities for the damage that the User has incurred due to the change of the contents upon formal servitization.
