SAKURA Startup Co-Creation Program Application and Use Terms and Conditions

Article 1 (Application of Terms and Conditions)

1. These SAKURA Startup Co-Creation Program Application and Use Terms and Conditions (these "Terms and Conditions") are applicable to juridical persons which apply for or use SAKURA startup co-creation program (the "Program") that SAKURA internet Inc. (the "Company") provides to juridical persons utilizing the services (the "Services") which the Company provides and seeking to develop businesses with the Company.

Article 2 (Application and Examination)

1. Only juridical persons (juridical persons which have applied for the Program, the "Applicant") which satisfy application conditions that the Company separately designates may apply for the Program and only juridical persons which have passed the examination by the Company may use the Program. After the application, the Company will examine it and determine pass/fail of the examination and the contents of various types of support (the "Benefits") to which the Applicant is entitled if it has passed the examination.
2. The Company shall notify pass/fail of the examination to the Applicant in a manner that the Company prescribes. The Applicant will be registered as a user of the Program when the Company sends a notification to the effect that the Applicant has passed the examination (a juridical person registered as a user of the Program, the "User"). The Company shall not assume obligations to disclose the contents of the examination and the reasons for pass/fail.
3. The Applicant shall respond to the request by the Company to submit materials which the Company needs for examinations.
4. If the Company determines that the Applicant falls under any of the following items, the Company may refuse to accept the application and may not examine it.
   (1) if the Applicant is likely to breach the contract with the Company because the Applicant has ever breached any other contract with the Company before or for any other reason;
   (2) if the information the Applicant notified upon application (the "Applied Information") contains false information;
   (3) if a significant difficulty in business or technology is recognized as to the provision of the Program to the Applicant;
   (4) if the Applicant falls under the antisocial forces (an organized crime group, a member of an organized crime group, a person who was a member of an organized crime group within the past 5 years, a quasi-member of organized crime group, a person related to organized crime group, a company related to organized crime group, a corporate racketeer (sokaiya), a crime group pretending to be a social activist and the like, a special intellectual violent organization or any other person equivalent to the above); and

(5) if the Company recognizes that acceptance of the application is inappropriate due to any other reason.

Article 3 (Benefits)

1. The Company shall separately set forth the types and the like of the Benefits which are provided in the Program.
2. The contents of the Benefits available to the User (including, but not limited to, the amount available if a decision to provide part of the Service free of charge as the Benefits (the "Coupon") is made), period of provision and other conditions differ for each User. The detailed contents and conditions of the Benefits for each User will be notified to the User by the Company along with the fact that the User has passed the examination if the User has passed the examination of the preceding Article.
3. In order to use the Benefits of the Program, the User needs to separately agree to the Company's Basic Terms and Conditions and the terms and conditions (the "Terms and Conditions by Service") which the Company sets forth concerning the Service which the User uses and conclude the use contract for the Service with the Company. If the use contract for the Service between the User and the Company terminates for any reason, the registration for the Program will be deleted and the User will no longer be able to receive all Benefits.
4. Out of the Benefits of the Program, use of the Service using the Coupon shall be set forth in each of the following items:
   (1) Even within the expiration date of the Coupon, if the amount of use of the Service by the User reaches the amount available for use of the Coupon, after that, usage fees under the Basic Terms and Conditions and the Terms and Conditions by Service which the Company sets forth shall automatically accrue.
   (2) Even before the amount available for use of the Coupon is reached, if the expiration date of the Coupon has passed, after that, usage fees under the Basic Terms and Conditions and the Terms and Conditions by Service which the Company sets forth shall automatically accrue.
   (3) In the case of the preceding two (2) items, if the User does not desire to continue the use of the Service with charge, the User shall take procedures for termination of the Service which the Company sets forth before the available amount or expiration date of the Coupon is reached. In this case, as set forth in the preceding paragraph, the User's registration for the Program will be deleted and the User will no longer be able to receive all Benefits.

Article 4 (Case Introduction and the like)

1. The Company may, with the consent of the User, introduce the User's use of the Program and the Service as well as the User's utilization situation and the like of the Program and the Service on the Company's website or at events and the like. The User shall cooperate to the extent possible in interviewing, photograph and video recording, appearance at event and the like for the Company to conduct the introduction and shall grant the Company the copyrights, trademarks, portrait rights and other rights necessary for the introductions.
2. The User may, with the consent of the Company, disclose to the public that it uses the Program and the Service as well as the User's utilization situation and the like of the Program and the Service. The User shall use the trademarks and copyrighted works and the like licensed by the Company in compliance with the conditions of the license.

Article 5 (Prohibited Matters)

1. The User shall not conduct the acts which fall under, or may fall under, any of the following items:
   (1) an act to breach the Basic Terms and Conditions or the Terms and Conditions by Service which the Company sets forth when the User uses the Service;
   (2) an act to use the Benefits of the Program for business other than the business applied for (if the User desires to use the Benefits in a new business, the User shall obtain the Company's prior approval);
   (3) an act to damage the credibility or image of the Program or the Company due to the breach of laws and regulations by the User or its officers or employees and the like; and
   (4) an act to damage the credibility or image of the Program or the Company through language and behavior and the like (including, but not limited to, statement on the Internet) that are contrary to ethics or lack courtesy of the User or its officers or employees and the like.
2. If the Company determines that the User breached the preceding paragraph, the Company may implement the measures set forth in the following items alone or in combination.
   (1) suspend or terminate provision of all or part of the Benefits; and
   (2) suspend or terminate disclosure of the case introduction and the like.

Article 6 (Fees)

1. Application fees, registration fees and usage fees of the Benefits for the Program are free.

Article 7 (Change to the Applied Information)

1. If the Applied Information is changed, the User shall promptly notify the Company of the change in a manner that the Company prescribes. Even if the communications from the Company to the User fail to arrive at the User or are delayed in arrival due to the User's delay in notification of change or failure of the notification, the Company may deem that the communications have arrived at the time when the same is supposed to arrive. The Company shall not assume any liability for damage that the User or a third party has incurred due to such delay or failure in notification.

Article 8 (Transfer of Status)

1. The User shall not transfer or provide as collateral its status or rights to a third party or cause a third party to take over its status or obligations without prior approval of the Company.

Article 9 (Non-Warranty, Disclaimers)

1. With respect to provision of the Program and the Benefits and examination result, the Company shall not give, whether expressed or implied, any warranty (including, but not limited to, warranty for fitness for a particular purpose, effectiveness of function and effect, service quality, security against threat, completeness, accuracy, appropriateness, non-infringement of third party's rights, development of business, formation of alliance, success of promotional measures and steady and continuous provision of the Company's Program or the Benefits and the like). The User shall make decisions concerning its business on its own responsibility and the Company shall not assume any liability for the decision-making.
2. The Company shall not assume liability for compensating for damages that the User has incurred in connection with the use of the Program or the Benefits (including, but not limited to, damages resulting from the User's inability to use the Program or the Benefits, delay in providing the Program or the Benefits, or the User's decisions made in light of the Program or the Benefits and the like; the same shall apply in this Article), regardless of liability for default, tort liability or any other legal liability (including those both in Japan and in countries other than Japan; the same shall apply in this Article).
3. The Company shall not assume any liability to the Applicant or the User for delay in or impossibility of notification of the examination result of the Program and provision of the Benefits in whole or in part due to natural disaster, war, riot, civil war, establishment/revision/repeal of laws and regulations of Japan or a country other than Japan, order/disposition/request by public agencies and the like, act of labor dispute, accidents involving transportation/communication line, epidemics or any other cause not attributable to the Company.

4. With respect to a dispute arising between a third party and the Company, the Applicant or the User in connection with the use of the Program and the Benefits by the Applicant or the User and examination results, the Applicant or the User shall resolve it at its own expense and on its own responsibility, and the Company shall not assume any liability for the dispute.

Article 10 (Deletion of Registration by the User and the like)

1. The registration for the Program will be deleted upon expiration of the provision period of all Benefits of the User.
2. If the User desires to delete its registration for the Program, the User shall notify the Company in accordance with the procedures that the Company prescribes, and the Company shall, upon receipt of the notice, delete the User's registration for the Program.
3. If the User desires to terminate the Service in use, the User shall conduct the termination procedures for the Service set forth by the Company, in addition to deleting the registration for the Program.
4. If the User terminates the use of all the Services, the registration for the Program will be deleted.

Article 11 (Deletion of Registration by the Company)

1. If the User falls under any of events listed below, the Company may immediately delete the registration for the Program without giving notice or demand to the User.
   (1) if the Company determines that the User has passed the examination using false information;
   (2) if the Company determines that the User has breached these Terms and Conditions;
   (3) if the User receives a petition for attachment, provisional attachment, provisional disposition, collection of tax delinquency, public sale or the like, or a petition for commencement of insolvency proceedings such as bankruptcy proceedings, civil rehabilitation proceedings, special liquidation proceedings and corporate reorganization proceedings for the User is filed, or the Company enters a liquidation, or the Company determines that the User is in a situation similar to any of the above in a country other than Japan;
   (4) if the User suspends its payment such as a case where any bill or check drawn by the User is dishonored, or there is any other event to be reasonably recognized that the User's credit standing has become worse; and
   (5) if the Company determines that a permission or any other relevant qualifications of the Company may be revoked by public agencies and the like due to an act (including omission) of the User.

Article 12 (Amendment to these Terms and Conditions)

1. The Company may amend these Terms and Conditions. If the Company amends these Terms and Conditions, the Company shall notify the User to that effect no later than seven (7) days before the amendment in a manner that the Company determines appropriate. The User shall be deemed to have accepted the contents of these Terms and Conditions after amendment by continuing the registration for the Program after the amendment to these Terms and Conditions was made.

Article 13 (Change and Discontinuation of Program and Benefits)

1. The Company may suspend, change or discontinue the Program and the Benefits in whole or in part for certain reasons. In that case, the Company shall notify the User to that effect in advance; provided, however, that if the Company determines it urgent, the Company may immediately suspend, change or discontinue the Program or the Benefits without giving prior notice to the User.
2. The Company shall not assume any liability for damage that the User has incurred in connection with the suspension, change or discontinuation of the Program or the Benefits.

Article 14 (Elimination of Antisocial Forces)

1. The Applicant or the User represents that the Applicant or the User itself, or its representatives, intermediaries or performance assistants (meaning persons whom the User uses to operate its business, whether an individual or juridical person, including subcontractors used through a third party such as multi-tiered business partners; the same shall apply in this Article) does not fall under any of the following items as at the time of application, and further ensures that any of the above persons will not fall under the same in the future:
   (1) an organized crime group, a member of an organized crime group, a person who was a member of an organized crime group within the past 5 years, a quasi-member of organized crime group, a person related to organized crime group, a company related to organized crime group, a corporate racketeer (sokaiya), a crime group pretending to be a social activist and the like, a special intellectual violent organization or any other person equivalent to the above (collectively, the "Antisocial Forces");
   (2) a person who has a relationship in which the Antisocial Forces are recognized to substantially control or be involved in the person's business management;
   (3) a person who has a relationship in which the person is recognized to use the Antisocial Forces wrongfully such as using the Antisocial Forces for the purposes to earn illicit profit for itself or a third party or cause damage to a third party;

(4) a person who has a relationship in which the person is recognized to provide funds or facilities to the Antisocial Forces; and

(5) a person who has a socially accusable relationship with the Antisocial Forces.

2. The Applicant or the User ensures that the Applicant or the User itself, its representatives, intermediaries or performance assistants will not conduct against the Company or related persons of the Company any act using fraudulent means, violent act, act using threatening words, act of unjust demand beyond legal liabilities, act to damage the Company's credibility or interfere with the Company's business operation or any other act equivalent to the above by itself or by using a third party.
3. If the Company recognizes that the User has breached either of the preceding two (2) paragraphs, the Company may immediately delete the registration for the Program without giving any notice or demand to the User.
4. If the Company recognizes that the User falls under the Antisocial Forces, the Company may request the User to explain or provide information materials as necessary and the User shall promptly respond to this request. If the User fails to promptly respond to this request or if the Company recognizes that the User failed to respond in good faith such as providing false explanations or information materials, then the Company may delete the registration for the Program without giving any notice or demand to the User.

Article 15 (Communications and Language)

1. The notice, demand, inquiry or any other communications (the "Communications and the like") from the Company to the Applicant and the User (both collectively, the "User and the like" in this Article and Article 17) shall be made by means that the Company determines appropriate such as sending e-mails or documents to addresses described in the Applied Information or posting on the Service Site.
2. The Communications and the like in the preceding paragraph shall be deemed to have arrived at the User and the like at the time when the Company transmits the Communications and the like by e-mail or in writing, or posts the Communications and the like on the Service Site. Even if the Communications and the like fail to arrive at the User and the like or such an e-mail or website is unable to be properly displayed at the User and the like's environment, the Company shall not assume any liability for damage arising in connection with the failure of arrival or proper display.
3. The language used in the Communications and the like shall be Japanese. As for all these Terms and Conditions and explanations on the Program by the Company, the text of those in Japanese shall be the authentic text. The User and the like shall, at their own expense and on their own responsibility, prepare an environment in which they may correctly receive and review emails or websites that use the Japanese language.

Article 16　(Governing Law)

1. These Terms and Conditions shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of Japan.

Article 17　(Dispute Resolution)

1. If a dispute, doubt or matter not set forth concerning the Program occurs, the Company and the User and the like shall resolve it in good faith through consultation.
2. With respect to a dispute arising out of or in connection with the Program, if the User and the like files a legal action against the Company, the Tokyo District Court shall be the court having the agreed exclusive jurisdiction in the first instance.　If the Company files a legal action against the User, the Company may file the action with the Tokyo District Court in addition to competent courts designated by the laws of the respective countries, and also may resolve the dispute through arbitration to be conducted in accordance with the Commercial Arbitration Rules of The Japan Commercial Arbitration Association in Tokyo, Japan at the choice of the Company, instead of filing a legal action with the court, and the User and the like shall consent to these.　The arbitration shall be conducted by one (1) arbitrator appointed by the Company and the language to be used for arbitration procedures shall be Japanese.　The arbitral award shall not permit a right of appeal and shall be binding on the User and the like and the Company.

Article 18　(Severability)

1. Even if any clause or part of clause of these　Terms and Conditions is held invalid or unenforceable by laws and regulations of Japan or the country in which the　head office of the User is located, the remaining provisions of these Terms and Conditions and the remaining part of the provisions which is held invalid or unenforceable shall remain in full force and effect.
